"Wayka & Gina were our Realtors for the recent sale of our home in San Rafael—which sold over asking price in one weekend! That was extremely outstanding! They were excellent from the start of the sale process to the close of escrow: knowledgeable and helpful with any questions that we had, whether it was dealing with permits, city & county regulations, to walking us through the signing process. They introduced us to the Compass Capital program, the interest free loan that made it possible to make any repairs such as replacing windows throughout the entire house, this was a major selling point. Wayka & Gina are genuinely concerned about their clients' best interests, they are honest & trustworthy. The staging of our house was warm & inviting this no doubt played a big part of the sale of the house. The team was a pleasure to work with! We would definitely recommend their services and would utilize them again."

Summer's end is always a bittersweet time for us in the Rec Department—a time to celebrate completing another crazy summer camp season, but also a somber time of goodbyes as our beloved seasonal employees head back to school, some of whom will regrettably not be returning next summer. This year's goodbyes, however, have been especially difficult as we bid farewell not only to our seasonal staff but also to our Recreation Supervisor—and good friend—John Paul Kessler as he moves to Massachusetts to sow his wild oats and seek his fortune.

John Paul's departure signifies much more to me than just the end of his tenure at Marinwood—it feels like the end of an era. John Paul has worked on and off for the District since 2007—two years before I was hired to run the pool. He was one of the first lifeguards I met that season and we immediately hit it off. Though he looked the part of a laidback skater kid—perpetually barefoot, hair in an unkempt mop, skateboard always by his side—he nevertheless impressed me with his deft lifeguarding skills, his friendly and easygoing demeanor, and his palpable love for the pool and Marinwood in general. After that initial meeting, I remember feeling encouraged that I was going to get along well with my new lifeguard staff. But I never could have predicted that I would still be working with John Paul 13 years later.

After graduating high school John Paul didn't immediately head off to college but instead worked at Marinwood as much as possible (every pool manager's dream come true!), saving up while he figured out what he wanted to do next. We lifeguarded together a lot those next couple seasons and began forging a deep friendship. I learned that John Paul was a deep thinker, an aspiring handyman, a voracious reader, and a huge fan of music. We would often spend our lifeguard shifts musing on the meaning of life, recommending bands to each other, and attempting to make DIY repairs to various equipment around the pool. Those seasons were an absolute blast and hold some of my fondest memories at Marinwood.

Through the years John Paul rose the ranks becoming a Senior Lifeguard, Swim Instructor, and eventually running the show as Marinwood's Head Lifeguard, also teaching Lifeguard Training and CPR courses on the side. He eventually moved away to pursue other endeavors but always stayed in touch and was willing to return from time to time to help teach a lifeguarding class or fill in as a building attendant. (One winter he even did a short stint working on our Parks Maintenance Staff when we were shorthanded!) I think John Paul easily holds the record for most job titles held with the District, an achievement of which he is extremely proud. All of this is a testament to John Paul's deep love for Marinwood—something I have always greatly admired and often benefited from.

John Paul's latest (and most likely final) stint with the District was as our Recreation Supervisor this past 2 years. In this role John Paul completed the progression he started over 15 years ago, now managing the pool that hired him, and now hiring, training, and mentoring the next generation of Marinwood lifeguards. John Paul flourished in this role, building a tight camaraderie with his staff and keeping the pool running smoothly. The mop-topped skater kid I met back in 2009 had now become a long-haired, long-bearded full-grown man, though still perpetually barefoot and sometimes still arriving by skateboard.

John Paul was a wonderful addition to our full-time recreation staff. We will miss his creativity, his humor, and his unceasing positivity. But most of all, we will miss seeing our friend every day. Getting to work with John Paul has been one of the greatest pleasures of my career and I will be forever grateful to him for helping make Marinwood such an enjoyable place to work. We wish him all the best.

WHO YOU WORK WITH MATTERS

RR

"In the best of circumstances it is not easy simultaneously selling and purchasing a home. It is particularly difficult when you have 3 kids, the oldest being only three years old! We cannot thank Liz enough for the extra work she put in on our behalf. Her willingness to act as a delivery person, a moving person, a baby holder and playmate to a toddler when necessary exemplifies the extra miles she took to help us out and speaks volumes about her character and professionalism. And, because of her hard work, we sold our house for top dollar and we bought the house we wanted."

SS

"If you are looking for a realtor who will advocate for your needs first, treat you with dignity and kindness and present you with multiple options to sell your home, Liz McCarthy with the McCarthy+Moe Group at Compass is the best! I heard about Liz through a friend who was selling her home in our neighborhood, a home which was stunning after she coached them through fixing it up then staging the home. Ultimately it sold for top dollar--and we had the same experience when we used Liz to sell our Terra Linda home. Really appreciate Liz's honesty, integrity and skills. You will not be disappointed!"

RR

Liz was highly recommended by a friend. Liz listed & sold our relative's condo within a week. At our first meeting, Liz told us how she expected things to go and we were skeptical it would go according to plan, but that is exactly what happened. And we got WELL over our asking price. Her team runs like a well-oiled machine and made the escrow remarkably easy for us. Of the 10-12 escrows I have experienced, this was by far the smoothest. I highly recommend Liz & her team."

COMPASS

With prices at historic highs, your home has likely increased substantially in value.

If you've been thinking of making a move in 2023, NOW is the time. Whether you're looking to down-size, up-size or you simply want to know the estimated market value of your home, call for a free home market evaluation.

Liz McCarthy has first-hand knowledge of our community because she lives here, plays here, and works here.
